Shane Rudduck:
As a team we worked better together then last year's season.

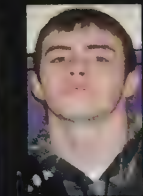

Derrick Danzl: What made this season great was the freindships and comradary, taking rewards and punishments to get to the promise land. PENDELTON. I also want to thank our coach Tim Pietsch. He beleived in us when we were too stupid to beleive in ourselves

Chris Diego: The best thing about this year was playing for our coach, and making second round of state playoffs.

Cody Mullins: Most memorable experience of high school and I loved the coaches and team.

John Anderson: This season was better than I expected it to be.

Pie In The Face

Every year, the students of WHS host a canned food drive to help out the community. Every year a certain amount teachers donate there faces to be pied @ the end of the can drive. For every can a student turns in, they recieve a ticket. They, then, write their name on one side and the teachers name that they would like to pie. The day of the can drive all the tickets are mixed up and the two teachers with the most tickets draw a name from their bag. This year Ms. Forney and Mrs. Lent were pied by Emily Kelso and Justine Marxer.

Throughout the school year, FTA members sponsor various activities that are intended for scholarship fundraising and enrichment.

Future Teachers Of America

Future Teachers of America is a national organization that provides opportunities for students interested in the education as a profession. Students who might also be interested in any field related to education are encouraged to apply for membership into FTA. FTA at Warrenton High School is part of the National Educators Association since 2002. The requirements for membership into FTA is a 3.0 GPA (sustaining a 3.2 after being admitted) and 3 teacher recommendations. As members must complete three teachers observations and interviews. Two of the interviews in Portland, one at Martin Luther King School and the second at Caitlin Gabel. Students are given a great opportunity to experience two urban schools of varying backgrounds and demographics

NO PUBLICATION IS A STAPLE OF LIFE. IT'S NOT BREAD AND WATER. YOU HAVE TO MAKE IT NOTEWORTHY IN PEOPLE'S MINDS AND EVEN IN THEIR HANDS AS THEY'RE HOLDING IT.

~TIMOTHY WHITE

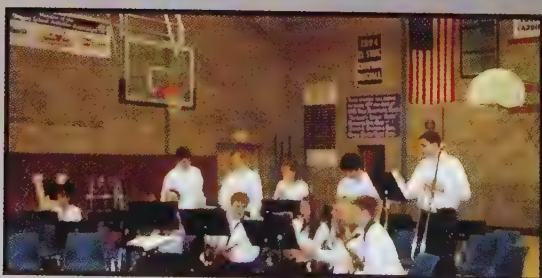

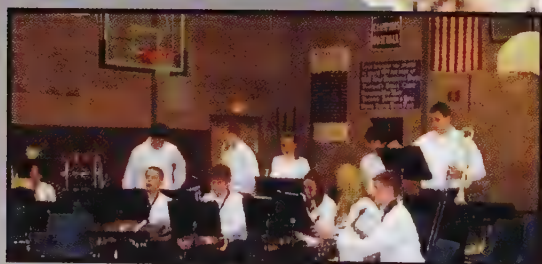

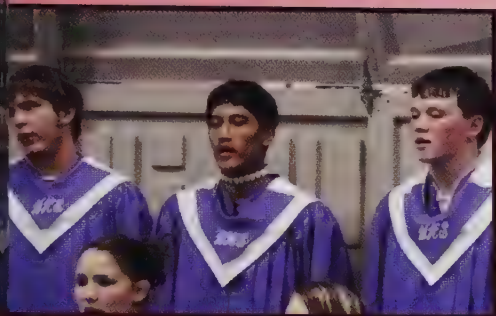

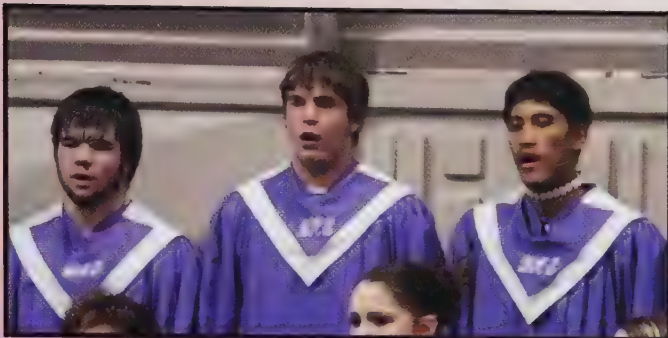

Band

Mr. Hammond usually says something, "Before we start. We do our sets of scales, our rhythm book, lip slurs, and descending half steps. We are told to feel the music. We can't just play a bunch of notes and call it music; you really have to get into it."

Band is an art. We are all talented; we push ourselves to the limit. It's harder than it looks. You have to make sure you slur that note or tongue that rhythm. There is always something that you can do better. People say, "Oh, ha, ha band geeks" but band geeks are rad. I don't see other people trying this. It's fun but we can buckle down and get serious.

Bands a blast and it's fun! Band there are also competitions like festivals and state. They're a one shot chance at shining no matter what instrument you play. During the end of every quarter of school, we have a concert. We play our hearts out! The concerts are fun and we go out there and do our thing. And just remember when in doubt play/tune it out.

"Choir was a wonderful experience and a great way to have fun while you get to travel."

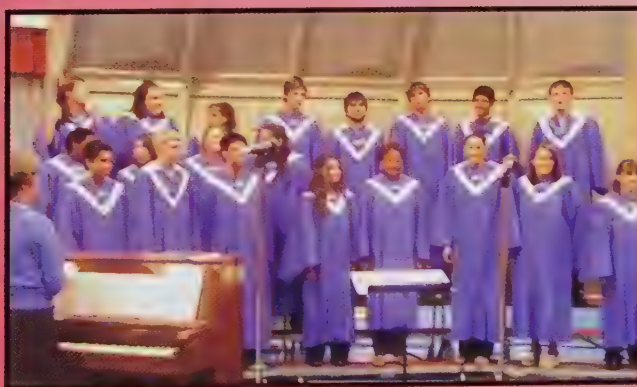

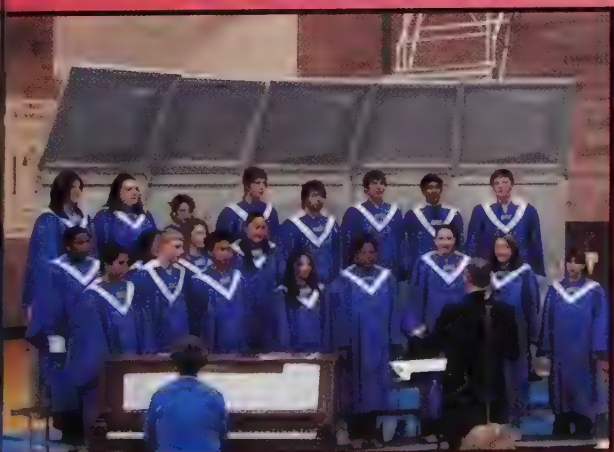

Choir

Choir is a serious thing. It's kind of like band. Mr. Hammond is a serious fellow. He is always pushing us to do our best. We usually warm up to some scales, to warm our vocals and sing out vowels with the piano. Mrs. Brewington is also there to help out Mr. Hammond with the piano playing.

Choir is similar to band because we have festivals, concerts, and state choir too. Our goal is to be good enough to go state. That's why we practice everyday to get better and better. At the end of every term there's a concert where we perform. It's fun and it entertains the crowd. And just remember, When in doubt sing it out!

Foreign Exchange Students

Ryosuke Ando is from Aichi Prefecture, Japan and when he first got here it was difficult for him because everything was new and hard to understand. In Japan, they didn't change classrooms every period, but in WHS they need to. Ando feels lucky because he had the choice to be at Warrenton High.

Wiebke Weil is from Germany. When Wiebke first got here, she was very excited to learn about other cultures, other languages and meeting new people. Wiebke had a hard time leaving her friends, but she had the comfort to meet new cool people. Wiebke finds her family and friends very important to her. She noticed that the school systems, the life style and the characteristics between other people. She is glad to be here and being able to learn about us. Wiebke is glad to have the choice be here.

Anne Budde came from Germany. Anne finds it exciting because she can meet new people and learn things about other students from Warrenton High. She wasn't afraid but she was very excited to be here. Anne likes the other students here at WHS because they are really friendly and helpful which makes Anne feel like she is a part of this school. Anne likes that people are asking questions to learn more about her and where she's from.

They all start out new, coming from Japan and Germany. In the end, they all feel great about coming to Warrenton High because they all like the fact that they can learn about others.

Spanish

Mrs. Turner, or "Senora", as her Spanish students know her, goes all out with her Spanish III classe. She plans a variety of events to give her classes a little splash of Spanish culture. Activities range from days spent in the kitchen to her annual field trips. She puts so much effort into making sure her spanish students come out of her classes with more knowledge then before. She creates an enviroment that makes it impossible not to learn. For the few students that choose to go above and beyond with an extra Spanish class, its worth it.

Cinco de Mayo

The Pinata was, of course, an important part of Cinco de Mayo. Krystine Hankins taking a wack at the pinata.

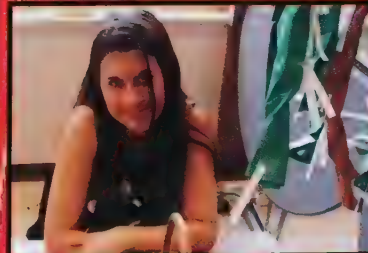

Towards the end of the school year, all three spanish classes frantically work on putting together our schools annual Cinco de Mayo. From the delicious ethnic dishes to the traditional games, the spanish classes go all out. In tradition, our Spanish I class puts together the food and our Spanish II class works hard at providing games, but this year our Spanish III class graced our school with a dance. Cinco de Mayo is always a fiesta to remeber.

Anne Bodde, Claudia Campos, Olivia Newbold, and Porshe Whitehead were some students that danced for the rest of the school.

Spanish II had many games, Krystine Hankins wishing tree was one of many other games.

I think
style

is what people like,
not just
clothes, but
cars, clothes,
music and

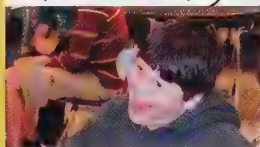

more...

style reflects what
in the inside

That is why everyone has slight differences

in their style. It is a great way for someone to express

his or her individuality

Instead of describing myself to someone, they can tell my personality

just from the way I dress. Maybe I will be feeling crazy

(fun) and dress that way.

Sometimes it's being up to date with what's going on,

wearing clothes that match, having a sense of fashion Style can be one's individual trademark. It can be like the thing that defines your character; like it's the thing that people make their first

Being

assumptions....

allows us
to express
our feelings
in different ways and not using words.

I think that once people become comfortable with themselves,

then their
personalities
will

shine
through

their clothes and style will cease to

matter

Style can be

internal or external

the style in which you
live your

life

The external part
of style is based on your clothes and what you wear. It
could be music, humor,
you as in individual or
in what you
do and

The internal part of style is your own inner

creativity

how you do it

My style consists of looking normal -

fitting in

I think style should be like

Senior Skip Day

One of the many highlights of being a senior is the senior skip day. This day is a day where with the senior trip, to go away from school and spend the day relaxing, swimming and eating food. This year the seniors enjoyed a day at Kelly lake.

Senior Trip

Every year Warrick's seniors take their last trip together, to Australia. Here they enjoy a variety of different activities, anywhere from go carts to miniature golf. The senior trip is an opportunity for the seniors to be together, for one the best time.

Crystal McAllister, Porsche Whitehead, Mimi Hatch, Katie Wolfe, Kiera Holtusen, and Danielle Miller.
